BEYOND BASIC OBEDIENCE

You and your dog have learned a lot in your basic obedience/puppy classes. But there is still training ahead to insure that your dog reliably does what you ask, whenever you ask. After all getting Spot to lie down when he wants to chase a squirrel is pretty advanced training. But that's when you need it most, so now is the time to start pushing the limits of your dog's abilities.

The BEYOND BASIC OBEDIENCE classes take you to that level. It's the proofing stage, or teaching your dog to respond in different contexts and while distracted by other things. Each month will focus on a different set of skills so you pick which skills to work with.
